WHEREAS: between December 23 and December 25, 1944, the Belgian town of Vaux-sur-Sure was subject to some of the most brutal engagements of the Battle of the Bulge; and

WHEREAS: on December 23, 1944, the 8th Tank Battalion of the 4th Armored Division of the U.S. Third Army entered the town in the village of Chaumont; and

WHEREAS: the liberation of Vaux-sur-Sure and the rest of Bastogne was realized on December 26, 1944 when the 4th Armored Division broke through the German encirclement in the village of Assenois, also in Vaux-sur-Sure;

WHEREAS: Brigadier General Albin F. Irzyk, a son of Salem, commanded the 8th Tank Battalion that helped liberate Vaux-sur-Sure and all of the Belgian Ardennes from German occupation; and

WHEREAS: on September 12, 2009, the town of Vaux-sur-Sure named a square in Chaumont in General Irzyk's honor; and

WHEREAS: in 1999 the City of Salem named a park and playground in this City in honor of General Irzyk; and

WHEREAS: This City's name is derived from an ancient word for peace; and

WHEREAS: A Sister City relationship between Vaux-sur-Sure and Salem will further enshrine the historic friendship between two free and democratic communities;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED

1. That the people of Salem do once again extend a hand in alliance across the Atlantic Ocean to the people of Vaux-sur-Sure; and
2. That the City of Salem does hereby designate the Town of Vaux-sur-Sure, Belgium, to be a Sister City; and
3. That the City of Salem shall endeavor to create new ways to demonstrate this unique and special relationship, including cultural exchanges, information exchanges, and more.

That the City of Salem designate the Town of Vaux-sur-sure, Belgium to be a sister city.

#605 – RESOLUTION – VERIZON EXPANSION OF FIOS NETWORK

Councillor Sargent introduced the following Resolution, which was adopted.

RESOLUTION:

WHEREAS: Access to reliable, high-speed Internet technology is essential to supporting Salem's economic growth and enhancing the lives of its residents; and

WHEREAS: Fiber optic technology is the most reliable and efficient way to transmit data to businesses and residences and would allow Salem to stay competitive in the business, education, science and technology sectors; and

CITY OF SALEMOCTOBER 8, 2015*REGULAR MEETING OF THE CITY COUNCIL

WHEREAS: Verizon has focused its expansion of the FiOS network in affluent communities surrounding Salem and across Massachusetts leaving the residents of Salem's neighborhoods and Salem's businesses unable to access the same state-of-the-art services; and

WHEREAS: This practice has deepened the digital divide and has increased the disparity in access to intellectual capital and economic opportunity; and

WHEREAS: Competition from fiber optic technology could drive down the cost for consumers and boost the speed of other Internet connectivity options; and

WHEREAS: Deregulation and monopoly control have let to a significant downgrading in traditional landline service in recent years; and

WHEREAS: State utilities regulators have enabled this problem by surrendering effective service quality regulation under the theory that "market competition" would produce the best results; and

WHEREAS: So-called market competition has resulted in less competition, higher prices and lower quality service and residents in localities where FiOS is not available are forced to pay monopoly prices for an inferior product; and

WHEREAS: High-speed internet has gone from being a luxury item to a basic necessity in the past two decades as Verizon and other telecom giants have continued to abandon the traditional copper network;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the Salem City Council strongly urges the utility regulators of Massachusetts to insist that high speed Internet and cable services be included among providers' "basic services" and work to ensure that Salem residents have access to the newest and most efficient telecommunications technology available.
