

Salem Park, Recreation and Community Services

November 2017

This Thanksgiving make a difference by donating either non-perishable foods or local grocery gift cards to those in need.

We will be collecting throughout the month of November at 5 Broad St. We will be filling baskets to distribute to seniors in need.

We had a wonderful time riding the trolley in this year's Haunted Happenings Parade.

Babysitting Training Class

This class will help prepare young adults, ages 11-17, to become a more responsible babysitter for friends and family.

Meet Jair Hamelink and

Tom Hartevelde. Both are students at Rotterdam

University and will be interning

with us through February.

They will be helping with the organization of this year's Generation Games, and working on projects in our department. Both are enjoying the many Halloween attractions in Salem!

A happy group at the Girls Volleyball Clinic. Thanks to Beth Kapnis Livermore for conducting this clinic.

Special thanks to the students and teachers of the Salem High School Culinary Arts Program for inviting us to the 15th Annual Salem High School Thanksgiving Luncheon. Each year we are treated to a traditional dinner prepared by the students. Entertainment will be provided by the Salem High School Chorus and the Salem Council on Aging's Goldentones.

Celebrating the October birthdays!

All Veterans are invited to the Monthly Coffee

Hour in the Veteran's Office. This month's coffee will take place from 10:00-11:00 am on Tuesday, November 21st. The topic discussed at this month's coffee will be Veteran's ID Card.

On Wednesday, November 8th, Audiologist, Dr. Joan McCormack will be at the Council on Aging providing information on services provided by the North Shore Hearing Foundation. The lecture will begin at 10:00am.
